From the Church's perspective, baptised people remain part of it – and always will – by virtue of their baptism, whether they like it or not. In the words of the Catechism "Baptism incorporates us into the Church" (# 1267), and "Baptism seals the Christian with the indelible spiritual mark (character) of his belonging to Christ. No sin can erase this mark, even if sin prevents Baptism from bearing the fruits of salvation" (#1272)
