Our secretary

Paula Mortel has been promoted in her professional career to an office at the Polding Centre. On behalf of the Parish Community I express our gratitude for her dedicated service to our Church these past 8 years. May God bless her as she embarks on her new professional journey.

Saint Juliana of Liège, a nun of the 13th century, can be credited with the formal establishment of the feast of Corpus Christi. She was born in 1193 and entered the convent of Mount Cornillon at the age of 13 and worked in the hospital, caring for the sick and pilgrims. It was during this time that she was favoured with visions and ecstasies from Our Lord who reminded her that there was no feast in honour of His Presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. She urged the Archdeacon of Liège to approve it in the diocese. The Archdeacon became Pope Urban IV and in 1264 extended this glorious solemnity to the Universal Church. St. Juliana led a difficult life and was later forced to flee from her convent. She was canonized in 1869 by Pius IX and further celebrated by Pope John Paul II, who wrote a letter mentioning her on the 750th anniversary of the Feast of Corpus Christi (28th May,1998).

In his Encyclical on the Holy Eucharist in 2003, Ecclesia de Eucharistia, St. John Paul II praised the hymns and poems of St. Thomas Aquinas(1226-1274) for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi: "Let us make our own the words of Saint Thomas Aquinas, an eminent theologian and an impassioned poet of Christ in the Eucharist, and turn in hope to the contemplation of that goal to which our hearts aspire in their thirst for joy and peace". Each of these hymns provides great doctrinal statements of the truths of the Incarnation, the Paschal Mystery, and the Eucharist while expressing devotion to Jesus Christ as Lord and Redeemer.

Godhead here in hiding Whom I do adore Masked by these bare shadows, Shape and nothing more, See, Lord, at Thy service Low lies here a heart Lost, all lost in wonder At the God Thou art. Seeing, touching, tasting Are in Thee deceived; How says trusty hearing? That shall be believed; What God's Son has told me, Take for truth I do; Truth Himself speaks truly Or there's nothing true.

Panis angelicus fit panis hominum; Dat panis caelicus figuris terminum; O res mirabilis: manducat Dominum Pauper, servus et humilis.
Te, trina Deitas unaque, poscimus: Sic nos tu visita, sicut te colimus; Per tuas semitas duc nos quo tendimus, Ad lucem quam inhabitas.
Amen.
