Heavenly Father, Today we ask You to bless our earthly fathers for the many times they reflected the love, strength, generosity, wisdom and mercy that You exemplify in Your relationship with us, Your children. Amen.	Thank you for being my loving father 	God took the strength of a mountain, The majesty of a tree, The warmth of a summer sun, The calm of a quiet sea, The generous soul of nature, The comforting arm of night, The wisdom of the ages, The power of the eagle's flight, The joy of a morning in spring, The faith of a mustard seed, The patience of eternity, The depth of a family need, Then God combined these qualities, When there was nothing more to add, He knew His masterpiece was complete, And so, He called it ... The appeal will raise desperately needed funds and commit the Archdiocese resources of education, health and welfare to Afghan families and individuals fleeing their homeland in the wake of the Taliban takeover of Afghanistan. The UN and aid agencies are preparing for a Syria scale refugee crisis. The appeal means that those who find their way to Australia will have support and resources waiting for them. These dark times remind all of us that we really are our brother and our sisters' keeper. We urge you to donate here: Archbishop's Afghan Refugee Appeal For further information go to: http://justiceandpeace.org.au/ Thank you on behalf of the Archbishop and those most vulnerable people for your support.	Peace and Charity www.no euthanasia.org.au/tell_gladys_stop_euthanasia Holy Communion at home is available. Last week. This year, the Archdiocese will be celebrating Child Protection Week beginning Monday, 6 September and ending on Sunday, 12 September which the ACBC has declared Safeguarding Sunday. Throughout Child Protection Week, the Safeguarding Office will be launching new resources for Children and Young People. To help with the development of our Children's resource, we asked Children from the Archdiocese to submit drawings of various emoji-type faces depicting various emotions. We had an overwhelming response and were extremely impressed with the quality of the drawings. From these submissions, we selected winners whose emojis will be displayed throughout the Children's resource. From our parish, the following Child's work was selected for an outstanding effort: Ellie McGowan.

Please note that this is a different fund from the CWF (100%)		We often hear the old saying that “we're fighting enemies abroad, so we won't have to fight them at home.” That comes from a time when the only means of projecting power through violence was to invade someone else's country. What threatens the World today are nations with long-range missiles that can reach us from bases deep within their own territory, from submarines or space. We face cyber-attacks. We face possible chemical weapons attacks or even biological. On the 82nd anniversary of the outbreak WWII (1.09.1939) we pray for a lasting peace in the World, harmony amongst the nations, for mutual respect and fraternity, cooperation and endorsement of the Human Rights, no matter who we are.
