Whole villages, whole towns and peoples went mad from the infection. All were excited and did not understand one another. Each thought that he alone had the truth and was wretched looking at the others, beat himself on the breast, wept, and wrung his hands. They did not know how to judge and could not agree what to consider evil and what good; they did not know whom to blame, whom to justify."  |

At 5a.m. that morning, Germany, bereft of manpower and supplies and faced with imminent invasion, signed an armistice agreement with the Allies in a railroad car outside Compiègne, France.  | The Symposium on Artificial Intelligence – or AI – organized by the Pontifical Council for Culture was opened in Rome last week. The theme for the gathering was, "The Challenge of Artificial Intelligence for Human Society and the Idea of the Human Person". The aim of the meeting was to promote a better awareness of the profound cultural impact AI is likely to have on human society. The symposium presented six experts from the fields of neuroscience, philosophy, Catholic theology, human rights law, ethics and electrical engineering. Experts from the Allen Institute for Brain Science, Goethe University, Boston College, and Google discussed questions regarding AI and whether it can reproduce consciousness, AI and philosophical challenges, and AI and religion, and what it would mean in relation to Catholic doctrine. |

It allows the faithful to gain plenary indulgences for the souls in purgatory by visiting a cemetery on every day in November and praying for those who have died.   | In the early part of the fourth century, the Laterani family was stripped of their land as one of their members was accused of conspiring against the Emperor. It was given to the Bishop of Rome in order to build the first Roman basilica. Throughout the centuries, St John Lateran has survived several fires and an earthquake in 897. Nevertheless, it still maintains its first form even though it has been reconstructed on several occasions. Near the Archbasilica there was a monastery, which has completely disappeared now; the only part still standing is its beautiful cloister from the thirteenth century. The Basilica also houses a baptistery, which for many years was the only baptistery in Rome. The Basilica of St. John Lateran has played an important role throughout history; it was here that all popes were enthroned until 1870. Nowadays, Basilica di San Giovanni Laterno is where the Pope, as Bishop of Rome, celebrates Holy Thursday Mass. Feast of Dedication of the Lateran Basilica is celebrated on 9th November. |  |
| Google: Sydney Centre for Evangelisation   | The concept of environmental stewardship originates with the first of the creation stories, in which God gives humans dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, and the animals of the land (Gen 1:1–2:4). We have distorted the mandate to "exercise dominion" that we have a right to dominate and exploit creation for our own wants and needs. This has led to untold abuses of nature. What we now know is that the Hebrew word for dominion does not mean "to dominate" or "to exploit." Rather, it means "to take responsibility for," as a ruler would be responsible to assure the well-being of those in the realm. | Pope Leo I, also known as Leo the Great, was bishop of Rome from 29 September 440 until his death. Pope Benedict XVI said that Leo's papacy "was undoubtedly one of the most important in the Church's history." He was a Roman aristocrat, and was the first pope to have been called "the Great". Memorial on 10th November.  |  |
