But these two also were as one; although they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, Paul followed. We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching.” St Augustine (354-430)	In the 14th century the custom developed of carrying the Blessed sacrament in the splendid procession through the town after the Mass on Corpus Christi Day. This was encouraged by the popes some of whom granted special indulgences to all participants. The Council of Trent (1545-1563) solemnly approved and recommended the procession as a public profession of the Catholic faith in the real presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist.
